Salutations unto Sri Chinmaya, the best among the teachers, whose divine form is the incarnation of compassion.

His feet are the abode of peace. He removes the delusion of those who surrender to Him and takes away their sins, sorrows and pain.

Singing the glories of Vedas, Upanishads and Gita, He re-awakened the ancient Sanatan Dharma and through Pure service pleased Lord Shankara.

At Siddhabari, the abode of penance, our noble teacher resides eternally as a source of joy in the hearts of devotees.
